

7th CREST Conference

(Co-sponsored by PSI, UEA and Haagse Hogeschool)

“ISSUES AND CHALLENGES OF E-GOVERNMENT: EXPERIENCES FROM EUROPE AND BEYOND”

Centre for Research in European Studies,
University of East Anglia, Norwich,
17th-18th April 2008

THURSDAY 17TH APRIL SESSIONS (COUNCIL HOUSE COMMITTEE ROOM 2)

Introduction: Liki Koutrakou 1.00pm

1.15-3.15pm Session 1: Chair: Rajash Rawal

Speakers:

What is E-Gov for?

Filipe Montargil, CIES/ISCTE, Portugal

Technology (hindrance, barrier, etc.)

Paul McCusker, Letterkenny Institute of Technology

Perceptions of E-Gov in Media

Paul Nixon, Haagse Hogeschool

3.15-3.30 Coffee/Tea break: (foyer)

3.30-5.30pm Session 2: Chair: Paul Nixon

Speakers:

Power & Democracy

Gerson Moreno-Riaño Regent University(with Michael Margolis)

Accountability in the Context of E-government

Dimitra I. Petrakaki

“Elected Politicians and their ‘Tastes’ for E-Democracy – The Dutch Experience”

Arthur Edwards ,Erasmus University Rotterdam

FRIDAY 18TH APRIL SESSIONS (ARTS BUILDING ROOM 0.100)

10.00-12.00pm Session 3: Chair: Antje Grebner

Speakers:

Setting New agendas: EU policy perspectives on citizen-centric and inclusive eGovernment

Neil McDonald Eur. Commission e-practice, ECOTEC Research & Consulting Limited

Mediation, arbitration, and E-Justice.

Joseph Savirimuthu, University of Liverpool

E-health

Savvas Savvides, London School of Economics

12.00-12.15 Coffee/Tea break: (foyer)

12.15-1.30 Session 4: Chair: Liki Koutrakou

Cyberterror

Rajash Rawal, Haagse Hogeschool

Challengers to traditional E-Government(NGOs)

Laura Sudulich U.C.D. & Paul Nixon and Antje Grebner, Haagse Hogeschool

END OF CONFERENCE