

Fifth CREST Conference:

(In association with UACES, the EC & the ESDP Democracy Group)

'New Security Agendas:

Accountable to whom? EU and US Visions of Global Security'

Convenor: Professor Pat Chilton, UEA

The fifth CREST Conference took place on 15 September 2003 at the University East Anglia, Norwich. It was titled: 'New Security Agendas: Accountable to whom? EU and US Visions of Global Security'. The conference offered academics and practitioners the opportunity to debate the current state of affairs and future of security issues and roles from the both the European and American perspectives. The conference was sponsored by the University Association for Contemporary European Studies (UACES) and was co-funded by the European Commission's Fifth Framework Programme, as part of the project: 'Bridging the Accountability Gap in European Security and Defence Policy'.

Specific topics included: new security agendas; security strategies; institutions; operations; intelligence; and capabilities.

Fifth CREST Conference:

(In association with UACES, the EC & the ESDP Democracy Group)

'New Security Agendas:

Accountable to whom? EU and US Visions of Global Security'

Convenor: Professor Pat Chilton, UEA

Venue: University of East Anglia, Norwich

Date: 15 September 2003

Conference Programme

10.30 Coffee and registration: Council Chamber

10.45 Opening remarks: What are the New Security Agendas?
Professor Stephanie Lawson (UEA)

11.00 - 12.45 Session One: Security strategies and Institutions
Chair: Professor Clive Archer (MMU)

Dr Wim van Eekelen (Dutch Senate, former WEU)
Professor Michael Cox (LSE)
Professor Sir Timothy Garden (Centre for Defence Studies)

Discussants: Catriona Gourlay (ISIS Europe), Professor Owen Greene (Bradford)

12.45 - 14.00 Lunch - Sainsbury Arts Centre

14.00 - 15.45 Session Two: Institutions and Operations
Chair: Professor Pat Chilton (UEA)

Lt. Col. Ben Lovelock (EU Military Staff)
Ariane Quentier (NATO Public Diplomacy)

Discussants: Professor Eric Remacle (ULB), Dr Giovanna Bono (Bradford)

15.45 –16.00 Tea

16:00 - 17:45 Session Three: Intelligence and Capabilities
Chair: Professor Herbert Wulf (BICC, Bonn)

Dr Bjorn Muller-Wille (Swedish Armed Forces/UEA)
Dr Jocelyn Mawdsley (BICC/ULB)
Dr Gerrard Quille (ISIS Europe)
Professor Sir Timothy Garden
Lt. Col. Ben Lovelock
Dr Richard Youngs (NUPI/IECAH)

18:00 Close

The conference was sponsored by the University Association for Contemporary European Studies (UACES) and hosted by the Centre for Research in European Studies (CREST) at UEA. It was co-funded by the European Commission's Fifth Framework Programme, as part of the project: 'Bridging the Accountability Gap in European Security and Defence Policy'.

