

Action Plan to Support the Implementation of 'The Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers'

A: RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION
Principle 1: Recognition of the importance of recruiting, selecting and retaining researchers with the highest potential to achieve excellence in research.
	Clause and evidence for current compliance	Achieved (A) Requires Action (R) Ongoing (O)	Lead Responsible	Timescale
1.1	All members of the UK research community should understand that researchers are chosen primarily for their ability to advance research at an institution. Action: 1.1.1 The underpins the University's Research Strategy as outlined in the Corporate Plan 2012-16, section 2 'Research with Impact'.	A	PVC for Research, Enterprise & Engagement	Completed
1.2	Employers should strive to attract excellence and respect diversity (see Principle 6). Recruitment and selection procedures should be informative, transparent and open to all qualified applicants regardless of background. Person and vacancy specifications must clearly identify the skills required for the post and these requirements should be relevant to the role. Action: 1.2.1 HR provides support and guidance to all managers and has published clear guidelines on Recruitment &amp; Selection including Equal Opportunities in employment. 1.2.2 Vacancy information and person specifications clearly identify the essential and desirable criteria required for Research and Analogous roles including specialist research skills, transferable skills and personal attributes. 1.2.3 Diversity profile of researchers recruited to the University will be monitored as part of Athena SWAN.	A A R	HR HR Equality & Diversity	Completed Completed April 2013

1.3	Research posts should only be advertised as a fixed-term post where there is a recorded and justifiable reason. Action: 1.3.1 The University adheres to the Fixed Term Employment Regulations 2002. Consultation has taken place with departments employing large numbers of researchers with a view to ascertaining appropriate procedures. 1.4	To assure fairness, consistency and the best assessment of the candidates' potential, recruitment and progression panels should reflect diversity as well as a range of experience and expertise. In order to promote these values, individuals who are members of recruitment and promotion panels should have received relevant recent training. Unsuccessful applicants should be given appropriate feedback if requested as this may be of assistance to the researcher in considering their further career development. Actions: 1.4.1 The University's Equal Opportunities Code of Practice states that wherever possible membership of recruitment panels should include both genders and reflect the diversity of candidates. 1.4.2 It is University policy for all those involved in recruitment panels, including all managers recruiting research staff, to have received appropriate Recruitment and Selection training. This process is monitored to ensure training is refreshed every two years. 1.4.3 Feedback is available to interview candidates via the Chair of the interview panel. All those who wish to receive feedback are able to do so. 1.4.4 The University Recruitment &amp; Selection guidelines include guidance on appointment of named researchers on research funding applications. HR managers consult with the Schools to ensure these guidelines are adhered to.	A A O A	HR HR RSWG HR with Heads of School	Completed Completed March 2013 Completed
1.5	The level of pay or grade for researchers should be determined according to the requirements of the post, consistent with the pay and grading arrangements of the research organisation. Action: 1.5.1 The HERA framework demonstrates compliance.	A	HR	Completed

B: RECOGNITION AND VALUE

Principle 2: Researchers are recognised and valued by their employing organisation as an essential part of their organisation's human resources and a key component of their overall strategy to develop and deliver world-class research.

	Clause and evidence for current compliance	Achieved (A) Requires Action (R)	Lead / Responsible	Timescale
2.1	Employers are encouraged to value and afford equal treatment to all researchers, regardless of whether they are employed on a fixed term or similar contract. In particular, employers should ensure that the development of researchers is not undermined by instability of

	employment contracts. This approach should be embedded throughout all departmental structures and systems. Actions: 2.1.1 The University's policies and procedures support the embedding of these principles. 2.1.2 The University's Corporate Plan indicates its commitment to excellence in research and the appointment and development of excellent research staff within the strands of the corporate plan relating to research and people. 2.1.3 The University has devised and implemented its own Code for Research Staff in consultation with research staff representatives which echoes the Concordat principles on Recognition and Value. This Code is reviewed annually. 2.1.4 The Code for Research Staff contains university-wide guidelines for induction of research staff, including induction to the role, department and institution. These guidelines can be adapted at School level. More work needs to be done to monitor induction procedures, identify 'Best Practice' induction and to review the guidelines accordingly. 2.1.5 All Research Staff are offered the opportunity for an annual appraisal. The University will review the appraisal and performance review process for research staff whose contract is less than a year. PIs should ensure that appraisals are effective and address work practices, problem solving and a career development review. 2.1.6 Need to raise awareness amongst PIs of the Concordat's commitment to the provision of training and development opportunities. A programme of short courses is being developed aimed at raising PI awareness of issues relating to the management of RS. The Vitae Concordat briefings for Research Managers (http://www.vitae.ac.uk/CMS/files/upload/Vitae_brief_Managers%20of%20researchers.pdf) will be used as supporting material. 2.1.7 Training and development opportunities are provided for Research Staff, both as access to general courses and specific courses and career advice. Further analysis of take-up of these opportunities may be required to enable appropriate targeting and awareness of the opportunities available to both Researchers and PI's. 2.1.8 An event, 'Researcher Day', publically acknowledging the important and valued contribution that research staff make to the University's outputs and working environment will be organised. 2.1.9 The University will establish an 'Excellent Researcher Awards' scheme, recognising outstanding contribution to all aspects of the RS role including research output, administration and public engagement activity. 2.1.10 Faculties will be required to review and update relevant policies and procedures to promote formal recognition of the role of RS in external research funding applications and in producing research outputs. 2.1.11 Faculties will take steps to ensure that RS are recognised and valued as equal partners alongside permanent staff in the research endeavour and encouraged to engage in wider academic and collegiate activities e.g. research seminars, research meetings, relevant staff meetings, and appropriate managerial and supervisory activities.	A R O R R R O R R R R	All ET RSWG RSWG HR /PIs RSWG CSED CSED/CCEN RSWG RSWG Faculties /REN Faculties	Completed 2012-16 Dec 2012 March 2013 July 2013 Nov 2012- May 2013 2012-13 and annually thereafter Oct -Nov 2012 Dec 2013 Sept 2013 July 2013
2.2	Commitment by everyone involved to improving the stability of employment conditions for researchers and implementing and abiding by the principles and terms laid down in the Fixed Term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations (2002) and Joint Negotiating Committee for Higher Education Staff (JNCHES) guidance on the use of fixed-

2.3	Research managers should be required to participate in active performance management, including career development guidance, and supervision of those who work in their teams. Employers should ensure that research managers are made aware of, and understand their responsibilities for the management of researchers and should provide training opportunities, including equality and diversity training, to support research managers in doing this. Institutions will wish to consider how research managers' performance in these areas is developed, assessed and rewarded, and how effectively this supports good research management. Actions: 2.3.1. Research Staff Coordinators (members of staff with a high level of interest in research staff issues) have been appointed in all Schools (or Faculties, where numbers do not support a School-only appointment) to facilitate the induction and support for research staff and to disseminate information regarding management processes for Research Staff to PI's within the School. Training and information has been made available to these individuals. 2.3.2 The University will develop and implement a code of practice for those managing research staff. 2.3.3 As recommended in the University's Corporate Plan 2012-16 a programme of leadership training is being developed for aspiring and existing research managers. In addition a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) framework will be put in place to ensure PIs undertake a minimum of one relevant CPD activity per annum. The University will have to consider how attendance on these programmes will be monitored. 2.3.4 The programme of short courses being developed to raise PI awareness of issues relating to the management of RS will include issues around induction and equality and diversity training (with reference to the HEFCE/Vitae 'Every Researcher Counts' project). As part of this programme PIs will be encouraged to discuss and manage the professional development of researchers as part of formal appraisal meetings. 2.3.5 PIs should ensure that research staff have the opportunity and are encouraged to participate in effective appraisal, which addresses work practices, problem solving and career development review. 2.3.6 Review training for Academic staff responsible for postgraduate research students. PGR supervisors are required to attend the 'Managing Postgraduate Student issues' course. This training should be refreshed every two years. 2.3.7 Information and advice for Research Managers / PIs, including the management and career development of Research staff is available on the University's RSConnect web-portal.	O  R  R  R  R  A	RSWG to monitor  RSWG / ET  ET/ CSED  RSWG/ Equality & Diversity Manager/CSED  PIs / HR  PPE  CSED	July 2013  July 2013  Oct-Nov 2012  Nov 2012- May 2013  July 2013  June 2013  Completed
2.4	Organisational systems must be capable of supporting continuity of employment for researchers, such as funding between grants, other schemes for supporting time between grant funding, or systems for redeploying researchers within organisations where resources allow. Funders are expected to make it a priority to consider how their policies, guidance and funding can be enhanced to help employers to achieve this objective. Actions: 2.4.1 All those approaching the end of a fixed-term contract have the opportunity to sign up to	A	HR	Completed

2.6	Researchers need to be offered opportunities to develop their own careers as well as having access to additional pay progression. Promotion opportunities should be transparent, effectively communicated and open to all staff. It is helpful if clear career frameworks for early stage researchers are outlined in organisational HR strategies. Actions: 2.6.1 All research staff are informed of the opportunities for promotion through the University's agreed promotion processes for this group of staff, and have the opportunity to apply for promotion or additional pay progression within and above the incremental scales. 2.6.2 Job opportunities are advertised in open competition, either internally or externally, for which any suitably qualified individual may apply. 2.6.3 Career guidance is available from within the University's Careers &amp; Employability service, with individual assistance and group sessions available.	A	HR	Completed

C: SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Principle 3: Researchers are equipped and supported to be adaptable and flexible in an increasingly diverse, mobile, global research environment.

Principle 4: The importance of researchers' personal and career development, and lifelong learning, is clearly recognised and promoted at all stages of their career.

3.1	It is recognised that positions of permanent employment are limited in the UK research and academic communities and that not all researchers will be able to obtain such a position. It is, therefore, imperative that researcher positions in the UK are attractive in themselves (and not, for example, solely as potential stepping stones to permanent academic positions). This requires that they provide career development which is comparable to, and competitive with, other employment sectors. Actions: 3.1.1 The UEA was an early adopter of equal terms and conditions for its fixed-term staff and of moving individuals to indefinite contracts (in advance of the 2002 regulations). 3.1.2 The UEA adopts an approach of allowing individuals to develop not just for the purposes of the project but for personal and career development, by both providing training courses specific to researchers and allowing them to attend any open access training course. However, we need to encourage researchers still further to take up training and development opportunities. 3.1.3 A broad range of career and personal development training courses is offered by the University and these are regularly reviewed in terms of content and relevance. 3.1.4. The Careers and Employability Service and Centre for Staff Education and Development have designated contacts for research staff. Both services continually review how to improve engagement with research staff. 3.1.5 Research Staff are asked to complete a destinations questionnaire as part of the exit procedure. This information is held by the Careers &amp; Employability service. The service needs to consider how to use this information to inform careers support and training provision for research staff.	A R O A O	HR CSED / PIs RS Skills Grp CCEN/CSED CCEN/CSED	Completed Nov 2012- May 2013 April-June 2013 Completed Oct 2013
3.2	A wide variety of career paths is open to researchers, and the ability to move between different paths is key to a successful career. It is recognised that this mobility brings great benefit to the UK economy and organisations will, therefore, wish to be confident that their culture supports a broad-minded approach to researcher careers and that all career paths are valued equally. Actions: 3.2.1 UEA monitors the specific destinations of its researchers, in addition to the monitoring required by HESA. The collected data demonstrate a mix of career paths being adopted by those leaving UEA. 3.2.2 Those who wish to seek further appointments at UEA are encouraged to apply for appropriate vacant posts, and the University operates a redeployment register to assist those approaching the end of a fixed-term contract in achieving an interview for a vacant post applied for. 3.2.3 UEA operates a "three strand" career path, within which transfer between Academic, Teaching and Research (ATR); Academic Teaching and Scholarship (ATS); and Research is possible. 3.2.4 The Careers and Employability service has dedicated Careers Advisors for Research Staff, providing impartial, confidential advice and guidance on all career paths open to researchers, including the application processes within and outside academia.	A A A A	HR/CCEN HR ET CCEN	Completed Completed Completed Completed

3.5	Researchers benefit from clear systems that help them to plan their career development. Employers and funding bodies should assist researchers to make informed choices about their career progression by ensuring that their own policies and processes for promotion and reward are transparent and clearly stated and that all researchers are aware of local and national career development strategies. Actions: 3.5.1 The UEA's promotion and reward strategies are widely available and these opportunities are further publicised within Schools as part of the promotion and review process. 3.5.2 The Researcher Development Framework is used to influence the provision of career development training and support. However, further work needs to be done to engage Research Staff with the RDF and the on-line personal development planner. 3.5.3 All UEA staff are included within the Appraisal Scheme, which takes place on at least an annual basis for research staff. Appraisal training for managers of RS specifically includes directions to ensure that RS Career development is included in appraisal conversations. The PI awareness sessions will aim to help PIs recognise their role in encouraging engagement. 3.7.3 Faculties will take steps to ensure that RS are recognised and valued as partners alongside permanent staff in the research endeavour and encouraged to engage in wider academic and collegiate activities e.g. research seminars, research meetings, relevant staff meetings, and appropriate managerial and supervisory activities.	O O R	CCEN / PIs CSED Faculties	July 2013 Nov 2012-May2013 July 2013

Researchers are encouraged to record their Personal Development Planning (PDP) and CPD activities, a log of which may be presented to current and future employers as appropriate. Action: 5.6.1 Appraisal training for managers of RS specifically includes directions to ensure RS Career development is included in appraisal conversations. Monitoring of RS appraisal is required to ensure that the University's guidelines are being implemented. Research Staff should be proactive and request an appraisal or additional career development conversations if this is not automatically offered by their manager. 5.6.2 Researchers can obtain a certificate of CPD engagement recording the number of hours and nature of training completed. ## E: DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY

Principle 6: Diversity and equality must be promoted in all aspects of the recruitment and career management of researchers.

6.1	The UK legislative framework outlaws discrimination on the basis of age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, race or religion. It also requires public bodies to take positive steps to promote equality, based on evidence and priorities, and to develop specific schemes and action plans related to gender, race and disability to address specific issues of underrepresentation or lack of progression. Action: 6.1.1 In the 2009 CROS survey 98% of respondents believe the university is committed to equality and diversity. Overall respondents felt they were treated fairly on the basis of ethnicity, nationality, disability, sexual orientation, race or religion. However 11% of respondents felt they were unfairly treated on the basis of gender and age. Equal opportunity plans and monitoring are in place and embedded in all committees and University processes. To help address the gender equality issue the University is a member of the Athena SWAN charter and is currently putting in place specific schemes as part of its Bronze and Silver Award submissions. 6.3	It should be emphasised that the demanding nature of research careers has a disproportionate effect on certain groups. We strongly recommend that all members of the UK research community actively address the disincentives and indirect obstacles to retention and progression in research careers which may disproportionately impact on some groups more than others. Action: 6.3.1 The University is a member of the Athena SWAN charter and has made an institutional level submission for the Bronze award. 6.4	Employers should ensure that the working conditions for researchers provide the flexibility necessary for successful research performance in line with legal requirements. Employers should recognise that for parents and others who have taken career breaks, including parental leave, have worked part-time, or have taken atypical routes into research, the "early career" period may be prolonged, and this may be a time where the risk of attrition from the research path is most acute. Working conditions should allow both female and male researchers to combine family and work, children and career. Action: 6.4.1 The University offers Family Friendly and Flexible Working arrangements for all staff. 6.4.2 The University is reviewing how to best provide maternity mentoring support. 6.4.3 Through the RSConnect training programme for research staff we are piloting the 'Managing your Academic Career: A one day career development programme for women' (http://www.vitae.ac.uk/CMS/files/upload/UKRC-%20Vitae-programme-flyer-Sept-2010.pdf.pdf). 6.7	Employers should aim for a representative balance of gender, disability, ethnicity and age at all levels of staff, including at supervisory and managerial level. This should be achieved on the basis of a transparent equal opportunity policy at recruitment and at all subsequent career stages. Diversity should be reflected on selection and evaluation committees. What is „representative“ will vary according to the nature of the institution and the academic research subject, but institutions should aim to ensure that the percentage of applicants, and ultimately appointments, from a particular group to any given level should reflect the percentage in the available pool at the level immediately below. Action: 6.7.1 HR provides support and guidance to all managers and has published clear guidelines on Recruitment &amp; Selection including Equal Opportunities in employment. 6.7.2 As part of the University's Athena SWAN Bronze award action plan we will review whether our recruitment and selection policies are generating a balanced representation of all groups at all career levels.
