

University of East Anglia

Earlham Road, Norwich, NR4 7TJ

By Car

From London take the M11/A11; just outside Norwich take the A47 towards Swaffham; the University is signposted at the next junction.

From the North or the Midlands, use the A47 via King's Lynn, or the A14 to Newmarket and the A11 to Norwich. UEA is situated approx three miles west of the city centre, just off the Earlham Road (B1108).

By Air

Norwich International Airport has scheduled flights to and from Amsterdam, Aberdeen, Edinburgh, Manchester, Exeter and international connections to 200 cities worldwide. The easiest way to reach UEA from the airport is by taxi.

www.norwichairport.co.uk

By Rail - Bus

Norwich is about two hours from London (Liverpool Street) railway station and there are excellent intercity links with the rest of the country. For train timetables and tickets:

www.greateranglia.co.uk

A taxi from the railway station to UEA usually costs about £8.00 - £9.00

There are regular buses direct to the University which leave from the railway station forecourt – bus number 25 or 25A. Once on the university campus alight at the first stop (opposite the main car park). A one-way ticket costs £2.40.

Bus timetables for buses 25 and 25A can be viewed here:

www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/suffolk_norfolk

By National Express coach

National Express coaches run from all major cities in Great Britain to Norwich, Surrey Street Bus Station in the city centre. Buses run regularly from Castle Meadow and St Stephen's Street in the city centre to the University campus.

Enquiries +44 (0) 8718 81 81 78 or www.nationalexpress.com/coach

Buses within Norwich area:

www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/easterncounties/easterncounties/home/

Taxis

ABC	01603 666 333
Goldstar	01603 700 700
Five Star	01603 455 555