

Date/Time	Department	Topic	Location
29th September 2009	Faculty of Health	Dr Angela Taft, University of Melbourne. MOVE and MOSAIC – developing public health research capacity into interdisciplinary complex interventions into intimate violence.	The Queen's Building, 1.23
14th October 2009	Faculty of Health	Professor Tom Wileman, UEA. How a search for nutrition and a healthy diet evolved into a defence against infection and ageing	The Queen's Building, 2.22
28th October 2009	Faculty of Health	Ian McCormick, University of East Anglia. HEFCE Consultation on the Research Excellence Framework - An Opportunity to Find Out More and Contribute to FoH and UEA Response	The Queen's Building, 2.22
11th November 2009	Faculty of Health	Professor Jane Burridge and Dr Ruth Turk, Southampton University. Using technology in upper limb stroke rehabilitation Quantitative assessment of upper limb motor impairments and how they relate to function post-stroke	The Queen's Building, 1.04
25th November 2009	Faculty of Health	Professor Ian Watt, University of York. Patient involvement in patient safety	The Queen's Building, 1.04
9th December 2009	Faculty of Health	Professor Barbara Dodd, City University. EBP: Answering Relevant Clinical Questions	The Queen's Building, 2.22