

Faculty of Health Research Seminars 2010 Spring Series

17th Feb

Dr Dominic Watt, University of York:
Myths and misconceptions: why clinicians and sociolinguists should talk more shop
The Queen's Building, 2.22

3rd March

Professor David Howard, University of Newcastle:
Evidence Based Practice in aphasia therapy: What is the right evidence?
The Queen's Building, 2.22

17th March

Dr Christopher McKevitt, King's College London
User involvement: A redundancy notice for qualitative health researchers?
The Queen's Building, 2.22

21st April

Dr Tony Arthur, University of Nottingham
Changes in quality of life associated with body mass index and waist-hip ratio among older persons
The Queen's Building, 1.04

5th May

Dr Ruth Parry, University of Nottingham
Understanding healthcare communication
The Queen's Building, 1.04

19th May

Dr Deborah Schofield, University of Sydney
Title tba
The Queen's Building, 2.22

2nd June

Dr Lynne Monrouxe, University of Cardiff
Title tba
The Queen's Building, 1.04

16th June

Dr Tina Jerosch-Herold, University of East Anglia
SCORD – a multi-centre, pragmatic, randomized, controlled trial of post-operative splinting after fasciectomy or dermosfasciectomy for Dupuytren's contracture
The Queen's Building, 2.22

30th June

Dr Maxine Patel, King's College London
Title tba
The Queen's Building, 2.22

All welcome

All talks start at 1.00 pm (last about 1 hr followed by discussion)
Coffee is served from 12.30 pm.

Please contact Jan McAllister J.McAllister@uea.ac.uk with any queries or to suggest further speakers