

Past Events 2009

January 2009 – July 2009

Seminars and conferences organised by the various universities within the Making Research Count network. A month by month listing.

JULY 2009

Wednesday 29th July

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

“Safeguarding adolescents: understanding neglect and maltreatment”

Gwyther Rees (The Children’s Society); held at the University of York

Thursday 23rd July

Making Research Count (UEA) half-day seminar

“Understanding serious case reviews”

Marian Brandon (UEA); held at UEA

Friday 17th July

Making Research Count (Brighton)

“Involving older people in service review and research”

Wednesday 15th July

Making Research Count (York) regional one-day conference

“The changing face of children’s social work”

Professor Nick Frost (Leeds Metropolitan University), Margaret Bell (University of York),

Keith Brumfitt (CWDC), and Anne Wilkin and Emily Lamont (NFER)

Held at the Priory Street Centre, York

Monday 6th July

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

“Young adult carers in the UK: experiences, needs and services for carers aged 16-24”

Fiona Becker (University of Nottingham); held at the University of York

Friday 3rd July

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King’s College London)

3rd Mental Health Social Work Continuing Professional Development Conference

“Connecting children’s and adult mental health services: a lifespan perspective”

Professor Jill Manthorpe (King’s College London), Dr Mike Slade (Institute of Psychiatry)

and Professor Michael Sheppard (University of Plymouth);

Held at King’s College London

JUNE 2009

Monday 23rd June

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

“Partnership and regulation in adult protection: the effectiveness of multi-agency working with the regulatory framework”

Bridget Penhale (University of Sheffield); held at the University of York

Friday 19th June

Making Research Count (Brighton)

“Parent and baby placements”

Wednesday 17th June

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) one-day conference
"Breaking the wall of silence: practitioners' responses to trafficked children and young people" Professor Jenny Pearce (University of Bedfordshire), Dr Silvie Bovarnick and Dr Patricia Hynes (NSPCC); held at the Resource Centre, Holloway Road, London

Friday 5th June

Making Research Count (Brighton)
"Getting to grips with online research information"

Monday 1st June

Making Research Count (UEA) half-day seminar
"Safeguarding in the era of the personalisation agenda"
Jill Manthorpe (King's College London); held in Norwich

MAY 2009

Wednesday 20th May

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) afternoon seminar
"Pathways to permanence for minority ethnic children"
Dr Julie Selwyn (University of Bristol); held at King's College London

Tuesday 12th May

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) morning seminar
"Meeting the educational needs of Looked After Children"
Dr Isabelle Brodie (University of Bedfordshire); held at King's College London

Thursday 7th May

Making Research Count (UCLAN) full-day conference
"Looked After Children"; Professor Nina Biehal (University of York), Professor Andy Bilson (UCLAN), and Dr Julie Selwyn (University of Bristol)

APRIL 2009

Tuesday 28th April

Making Research Count (UEA) half-day seminar
"CAF and working together"
Marian Brandon (UEA); held at Kerrison, Suffolk

Monday 27th April

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar
"I know what I want: participation and choice for adults with learning disabilities ... and children too?" Ian Buchanan (University of York); held at the University of York

Wednesday 22nd April

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) one-day conference
"Safeguarding future generations: challenging those who sexually exploit young people"
Sue Jago and Professor Jenny Pearce (University of Bedfordshire)
Held at King's College London

Wednesday 22nd April

Making Research Count (York) full-day seminar
"Kinship care placements: quality and outcomes"
Joan Hunt (University of Oxford), Debra Lane (East Riding Council) and Paul Dyson
Held at the University of York

Monday 6th April

Making Research Count (Brighton) seminar
"Individual Budgets" Martin Stevens (King's College London)
Held at the University of Brighton

Friday 3rd April

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) half-day seminar
"Understanding attachment theory"
Professor David Shemmings (University of Kent); held at King's College London

Thursday 2nd April

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and Luton Partnership for Older People Project POPP) adult services one-day conference
"Ageing and mental well-being open day"; held at the University of Bedfordshire

MARCH 2009

Monday 30th March

Making Research Count (Brighton) half-day seminar
"Parental mental health"; held at the University of Brighton

Wednesday 25th March

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) morning seminar
"Working with children and young people with neuro-developmental processing problems" Professor Samuel Stein (Bedfordshire and Luton CAMHS)
Held at King's College London

Wednesday 25th March

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) afternoon seminar
"I Wish I could help, but I can't": Partnership Working?" Professor Samuel Stein
(Bedfordshire and Luton CAMHS); held at King's College London

Monday 23rd March

Making Research Count (UEA)
"Supporting parents whose children are adopted"
Dr. Beth Neil (UEA); held at Kerrison, Suffolk

Monday 23rd March

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar
"Using a supported respite service to support families with children on the edge of care"
Jo Dixon (University of York), Steve Robinson and Angie York (Residential Unit, North East local authority); held at the University of York

Monday 23rd March

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) day seminar
"Building on strengths: acting on learning, keeping children safe"
Lesley Moore and Julie Barnes; held at the NCVO centre, London

Wednesday 11th March

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) half-day seminar
"Working with children and young people involved with gangs"
Professor John Pitts (University of Bedfordshire); held at King's College London

FEBRUARY 2009

Friday 27th February

Making Research Count (UEA) half-day seminar

"Promoting the resilience of young people leaving care: messages from research"

Professor Mike Stein (University of York); held at Kerrison, Suffolk

Thursday 26th February

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

"Abuse in care – acting to prevent the abuse of adults with learning disabilities in residential care"; Caroline White (University of Hull); held at the University of York

Monday 16th February

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

"Domiciliary care agencies and personal budgets – perceptions of opportunities and risks"; Kate Baxter (University of York); held at the University of York

Friday 13th February

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) one-day conference

"Effective safeguarding practice: learning the lessons from serious case reviews"

Marian Brandon (University of East Anglia), Wendy Rose (OU), Jane Wonnacott and Julie Barnes (independent consultants); held at King's College London

Thursday 12th February

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) half-day seminar

"Managing troubled children: understanding schools as wider systems"

Chris Warren-Adamson (University of Southampton); held at King's College London

Thursday 5th February

Making Research Count (Keele) half-day seminar

"Safeguarding in the era of the personalisation agenda"

Professor Jill Manthorpe (King's College London); held at Keele University

Wednesday 4th February

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) half-day seminar

"Understanding attachment theory"

Professor David Shemmings (University of Kent); held at King's College London

Monday 2nd February

Making Research Count (Brighton) half-day seminar

"Individual Budgets"; held at the University of Brighton

JANUARY 2009

Friday 30th January

Making Research Count (York) half-day seminar

"Saying hello every day: combating loneliness and isolation among older people"

Professor Steven Shardlow (University of Salford); held at the University of York

Thursday 22nd January

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King's College London) adult services half-day seminar,

"The challenges and potential of care management"; held at King's College London in partnership with the Social Work History Network

Thursday 22nd January

Making Research Count (UEA) half-day seminar

“Achieving permanence in foster care”

Professor Gillian Schofield (UEA); held in Ipswich

Friday 16th January

Making Research Count (Keele) half-day seminar

“Refugee and asylum seeking children”

Dr. Ravi Kohli (University of Bedfordshire); held at Keele University

Wednesday 14th January

Making Research Count (Bedfordshire and King’s College London) half-day seminar

“Working with resistance: motivational interviewing”

Dr. Donald Forrester (University of Bedfordshire); held at King’s College London