

Study Group on the Russian Revolution

XLI Annual Conference

University of East Anglia, Norwich, UK, 3 – 5 January 2015

Saturday 3 January

12.00-13.30 Welcome, Lunch, and Registration

13.30-15.30 Panel 1: Revolution and society

Pavel Vasilyev (Berlin)

Is Revolution Emotional? The Place of Emotions in Early Soviet Culture

Katy Turton (Queens, Belfast)

Women in histories of the Russian Revolution: Thoughts on three recent publications

Alice Pate (Kennesaw, Georgia)

Society and the Workers' Question in Late Imperial Russia and the Revolutionary Era

Frank Wolff and Gleb Albert (Osnabrück & Zurich)

The Revenant Martyr: The Heroized Legacy of the "First Jewish Terrorist" Hirsh Lekert

15.30-16.00 Coffee, tea and biscuits

16.00 – 18.00 Panel 2: Crime and punishment

Sarah Badcock (Nottingham)

"Taming the Wild Taiga": Work in Siberian exile during the last years of Tsarism.

Aaron Retish (Detroit)

Administration of the courts in the mid-1920s in Soviet Russia and Kazakhstan

Mark Vincent (UEA, Norwich)

Popular Perceptions of Penalty in Late Imperial and Early Soviet Russia

Zinaida Gafurova (Moscow)

Vladimirsky Tsentral" (Vladimir central prison) in the history of Russian Revolution

End of day one. Check-in/return to Broadview Lodge, UEA

19.30 Dinner, The Library, Guildhall Hill, Norwich

Sunday 4 January

09.15-09.45 Coffee and tea

09.45-11.15 Panel 3: Politics and society before 1917

George Gilbert (Oxford)

Right-wing approaches to civic society in late imperial Russia

James White (Florence)

Disunity In Faith? Edinoverie confronts Orthodoxy and Old Belief, 1900-1918

Jessica Howell (Flagler, Florida)

Peasant identity and the PSR

11.15-11.45 Coffee and tea

11.45-13.15 Panel 4: War and revolution

Tony Heywood (Aberdeen)

Russia's "secret" mobilization in July 1914

Antony Kroner (The Hague)

Unknown aspects of Vasili Maklakov, famous lawyer, member of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Duma and last ambassador of the Provisional government in Paris

Yulia Naumova (London)

Voice from London: Revolutionary work of Ariadna Tyrkova in 1917-1919

13.15-14.15 Lunch

14.15-15.30 Annual General Meeting of the Study Group on the Russian Revolution

15.30-16.00 Tea and coffee

16.00-17.30 Panel 5: Civil War

Alan Crawford (Bristol)

Revolutionary Imperialists: Russians in China and the February Revolution 1917

Rachel Lin (Oxford)

Among Ghosts and Tigers: The Chinese in the White Terror

Jenny Grieve-Lang (Aberdeen)

Russian refugees in Constantinople in 1921 and aid provided by Zemgor

19.00 Dinner, The Mad Moose, Warwick St, Norwich

Monday 5 January

09.15-09.45 Coffee and tea

09.45-11.15 Panel 6: Politics in the 1920s

Alexis Pogorelskin (Duluth, Minnesota)

'Lessons of October': What Trotsky Really Intended to Teach

Charters Wynn (Austin, Texas)

Balancing Act: Mikhail Tomsky and the Workers Opposition.

Lara Cook (Newcastle)

Executive Power in the Early Soviet Government: From State to Party, 1917-22

11.15 – 11.45 Coffee and tea

11.45-13.15 Panel 7: Siberia

Natalia Khisamutdinova (Vladivostok)

Memories of Whites and Reds on the Civil War in Siberia: Issues of Bibliography

Alistair Dickins (Manchester)

Mobilising against Tsarism: Workers, Intelligentsia, and the Establishment of the Krasnoiarsk Soviet, March 1917

Aaron McGaughey (Nottingham)

Old and New Siberians: peasant communities in late-imperial Irkutsk

13.30 Lunch, Sainsbury Centre for the Visual Arts, UEA

End of conference

Conference sessions, registration and lunch will all take place in Arts 01.06 and its foyer