EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES STATEMENT

The University of East Anglia welcomes staff and student diversity and is an equal opportunities employer. We aim to ensure that no job applicant or employee will receive less favourable treatment on the grounds of sex, marital status, gender reassignment, race, colour, nationality, ethnic origin, disability, religion or belief, political belief, sexual orientation, pregnancy or childbirth, membership of a trade union, part-time working or age. We aim to ensure that job applicants who are disabled, become disabled, or have had a disability receive no less favourable treatment than others on the grounds of their disability and we are supportive in making reasonable adjustments. Selection practices, promotion criteria and access to training and development of individuals are actively reviewed to ensure that the selection, promotion, training and development of individuals is carried out on the basis of the job requirements and individuals' relevant skills and abilities alone.

We are committed to the promotion of equality and the elimination of unlawful discrimination and harassment. We will monitor and review the impact of policies and procedures and actively work to ensure that all members of the University community are aware of their responsibilities under the University’s Codes of Practice.

DISABILITY

Definition of Disability - The Equality Act 2010 defines disability as ‘A physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day to day activities.’ Long term in this context means likely to last longer than 12 months or likely to recur. Please note that cancer, HIV and multiple sclerosis are covered by the Act from the point of diagnosis.

Do you have a disability as defined by the Equality Act 2010?

Yes ☐ No ☐ Prefer not to disclose ☐

Please note that this form will be detached from your application before being sent to the recruiting manager and will be held in Human Resources. Recruiting managers are only provided with any information about your disability, in order to make appropriate arrangements for reasonable adjustments to be put in place at interview. If you require any adjustments and are short listed for interview you will be contacted by a member of the Human Resources Division or recruiting manager to discuss your requirements.

A disabled person is someone who has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on his/her ability to carry out normal day to day activities. Please note that a physical impairment includes sensory impairment such as blindness, partial sight and hearing loss. A mental impairment includes learning difficulties or a mental health condition (depression or schizophrenia).

Some examples of impairments or long term conditions (likely to last longer than 12 months or likely to recur) that could be considered as a disability (please note this list is not exhaustive) are: diabetes, epilepsy, speech impairment, hearing impairment, dyslexia, severe facial disfigurement, Crohn's disease, mental illness, HIV, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, heart disease, learning difficulties.

3a) Please indicate the nature of your disability or long term condition (please tick the relevant box):

☐ Long-standing illness or health condition (such as cancer, HIV, diabetes, chronic heart disease or epilepsy)
☐ Mental health condition (such as depression or schizophrenia)
☐ Physical impairment or mobility issues (such as difficulty using arms or using a wheelchair or crutches)
☐ Deaf or serious hearing impairment
☐ Blind or serious visual impairment
☐ Specific learning disability (such as Dyslexia or Dyspraxia)
☐ General learning disability (such as Down’s syndrome)
☐ Cognitive impairment (such as autistic spectrum disorder or resulting from head injury)
☐ Other type of disability or long term condition

Please indicate the length of time you have had the condition, and if you wish provide additional information about your disability or long term condition:

3b) Please let us know if there are any reasonable adjustments we need to consider making if you are invited to interview for this post, for example access to interview rooms, alternative equipment, hearing loop etc.

3c) Please inform us of any reasonable adjustments we would need to consider if you were successful following interview.

I confirm that all personal details provided on this form and any accompanying documentation are correct, and understand that any false statement could result in the appointment being declared invalid.
