

GO GREEN WEEK 12–16 FEBRUARY

Go Green Week is a series of sustainability focused events running from 12–16 February. Some details are yet to be confirmed: keep updated by checking @SustainableUEA, or email Sustainable Ways and ask to be updated on events.

Events are free and open to all staff and students!

Monday : Campus engineering tour – explore our Combined Heat and Power (CHP) engine room, led by Richard Bettle (UEA Energy & Utilities Manager) – meet 13:25 in Estates Reception (event 13:30–14:15) [Not accessible]
Zero Waste Workshop – 17:15–18:00, Union House Bookable Room 1.
Join Sustainability Society and make your own toothpaste and body scrub!
Screening: ‘To the Ends of the Earth’ and Q&A with Emma Thompson – 18:30–22:00, ARTS 2.01

Tuesday: Campus Habitat Walk – 12:15–13:00, meet outside Zest / Campus Kitchen
Inaugural lecture: ‘Water, war and so much more’, Prof Mark Zeitoun – 18:30–20:00, Julian Study Centre Lecture Theatre

Wednesday: Green Consultation – what can UEA do to improve? (The Hive)
Find us in the Hive, with Sustainability Society, Conservation and Wildlife Society, Healthy Planet, Vegbox and Sustainable Travel, 10:00–16:00
Cycle With Confidence session – 13:30–14:15 & 14:30–15:15
Sustainable Labs tour – 15:00–16:00, meet @ Chemistry reception

Thursday: Campus Habitat Walk – 12:15–13:00, meet outside Zest / Campus Kitchen
Seminar: ‘Renewable technology opportunities and UEA’, Paul Thacker (UEA Engineering & Infrastructure Manager) – 13:15–14:00, JSC 2.02
Zero Waste Workshop – 17:15–18:00, Union House Bookable Room 1

Friday: Green Consultation – what can UEA do to improve? (The Hive)
Campus litter pick – 10:00–12:00, meet in The Square
Screening: ‘The Lorax’ – 18:15–20:00, ARTS 01.02