LANGUAGE SUMMER SCHOOL

DATE MONDAY 19 - WEDNESDAY 21 AUGUST 2019

TIME 9.30AM-4PM

VENUE UEA, NORWICH, NR4 7TJ

EVENT COORDINATOR KIM RIDEALGH

The School of Politics, Philosophy, Language and Communication Studies at the University of East Anglia would like to invite language students entering Year 12 and 13 in the next academic year to its annual Language Summer School.

Now in its fifth year, the non-residential programme will help to prepare students for their studies in French, Spanish and German at post-GCSE level, and we are delighted to announce that this year's programme has expanded to include Japanese for those with little or no prior experience of the language.

During the three day event, students will have the chance to take part in a range of written, oral and group activities that will equip them with the necessary skills to embark upon their A levels in their chosen language/s whilst gaining experience of university life.

The event is free to attend (including lunch) and a travel fund is available for eligible participants.

To apply for a place, students must complete an online application form: uea.ac.uk/outreach/languages2019

For further information or to book your place, please email: hum.outreach@uea.ac.uk
