Faculty of Arts & Humanities
2019 Research Showcase

Celebrating and Sharing Research Excellence at UEA

Wednesday 19th June, 12.00-3.00pm Registry Council Chamber

Programme of Presentations

12noon
Lunch, including Bucks Fizz
Display of recent research outputs by Colleagues in Registry Council Chamber Foyer

12.30
Welcome by School Research Directors and Presentations

- Tiffany Atkinson (LDC) – ‘O What Can I Say?: Embarrassment, Ethics and Poetry’ (Leverhulme Trust Fellowship 2019)
- Hazel Marsh (PPL) – ‘The Art of Disaster Risk Reduction: an Arts-based Approach to Strengthening Community and Institutional Capacity in Columbia’ (AHRC, Follow-on Funding)
- Susan Hodgett (AMA/PPL) – Necessary Travel: New Area Studies and Canada in Comparative Perspective (2019)
- Michael Frazer (PPL) – ‘The Ethics of Political Activism in the Humanities and Social Sciences’ (Spencer Foundation)
- Jamie Hakim (AMA) – Digital Intimacies: How Gay and Bisexual Men Use Smartphones to Negotiate their Cultures of Intimacy (ESRC New Investigator grant, 2019)
- Victoria Cann (IIH) – Girls Like This, Boys Like That: The Reproduction of Gender in Contemporary Youth Cultures (2018)
- Shinjini Das (HIS) – Vernacular Medicine in Colonial India: Family, Market and Homoeopathy (2019)
- Jaqueline Fear-Segal (AMA) ‘Beyond the Spectacle: Native North American Presence in the UK’ (AHRC Research Grant)
- Rupert Read (PPL) – ‘Taking the Debate on Nature’s Value to the Valuers’ (AHRC, Follow-on Funding).
- Petra Rau (LDC) – Only What You Can Carry: Nine Working-class Women and German Cultural Memory (Leverhulme Trust Fellowship 2019)

Concluding Remarks by Professor Fiona Lettice, PVC Research

Please RSVP to Claire Grasby (HUM.Research@uea.ac.uk) and include any special dietary requirements by 12noon on 12/6/19