

Norwich Business School Seminar Series, Autumn 2016

All seminars are on Wednesdays, 1:00-2:00pm, TPSC 2.05. Lunch and refreshment from 12:00pm

Wed 12 October
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Nathaniel Boso (Leeds University Business School), “Burying the hatchet and taking the olive branch of peace: Developing and benefiting from cooperation with competitors”

Wed 19 October
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Tinne Vander Elst (Idewe and KU Leuven), “The reciprocal relationship between job insecurity and depressive symptoms: A latent transition analysis”

Wed 26 October
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Paul Gooderham (NHH- Norwegian School of Economics), “The long journey towards a multi-level analysis of the use of individual pay-for-performance systems”

Wed 2 November
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Roberto Mura (Manchester Business School), “The Effect of ‘Underwriter–Issuer’ Personal Connections on IPO Underpricing and Performance”

Wed 9 November
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Chee Wong (Leeds University Business School), “How does green supply chain management make firms lean, green and profitable?”

Wed 16 November
From 1 to 2 pm
TPSC 2.05

Julian Williams (Durham University Business School), “Empirical Recovery: A Non-linear Programming Approach to Extract The Physical Distribution of Asset Prices from Intraday Option Prices”