

Norwich Business School Seminar Series, Spring 2017

All seminars are on Wednesdays, 1:00-2:00pm, TPSC 2.05. Lunch and refreshment from 12:00pm

Wed 22 February
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Laurent Weill (University of Strasbourg), “Trust in banks”

Wed 1 March
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Ute Stephan (Aston Business School), “Entrepreneurs’ mental health and well-being: A review”

Wed 8 March
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

John Thanassoulis (Warwick Business School), “Ethical standards and cultural assimilation in financial services”

Wed 22 March
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Andreas Eggert (Universität Paderborn), “Exploring the link between payment schemes and customer misbehaviour”

Wed 3 May
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Christopher Land (University of Leicester), “Handicrafts or Hop-Rockets: Tradition, innovation and gender dynamics in craft brewing”

Wed 10 May
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Mark Cropley (University of Surrey), “Switching-off from work: the importance of unwinding after work for health and wellbeing”

Wed 24 May
1-2pm, TPSC 2.05

Steve Wood (Surrey Business School), “Knowledge and decision-making within online fashion multinational retailers: The challenge of managing virtual ‘stores’ at a distance”