

Applicant Day

Please sign in in Thomas Paine Study Centre – you will sign in and collect your clothes and lanyards for the day.

Registration

Your role on the registration desk is to greet visitors, check them in using the tablets provided.

Visitors also need to be given a bag and a programme from their subject of studies Applicant Day.

When you arrive and before you leave you will need to help us set up and pack down.

Meet and Greet

Your role will be based on the entrance to the Thomas Paine Study Centre and at the different bus stops.

You will be greeting visitors and guiding them to the registration area using our placards.

You may come inside to get a hot drink if you need one.

We hope you enjoy working, if you any queries on the day speak to one of the Recruitment Events Team in Thomas Paine Study Centre.
