PGR Summer Schools

The School of Economics at UEA offers a number of Summer Schools which are a great way to gain an insight into frontier research through short intensive courses. All Summer Schools are free of charge for UEA registered PGR students and for PGR students from our potential DTP partners. These courses are suitable for PGR Students and Early Career Researchers. Our Industrial Organisation course is designed to also be of interest to Industry Professionals.

Payment can be made in one of three ways:

- Direct bank transfer
- By card, over the phone.
- If your institution is paying for your place, UEA can provide an invoice.

Please note we do not offer reduced rates for partial attendance of our courses.

Attendance is free for PhD Students from UEA and selected partner institutions. (Essex, Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Reading, Royal Holloway, Goldsmiths).
