

to Sir Muir Russell

I am reading that yet another member of your team ...Geoffrey Boulton is recognised as being rather less than of a neutral persuasion in the AGW debate. If you hope that your review will achieve any sort of public acceptance then it would be advisable to refrain from appointing biased review participants, otherwise you and your review will lose all credibility.

Rgds
C Barling